

Exporting Trends & Traditions
France Wine

NEWS!

France Wine welcomes Château Palvié and Domaine la Croix des Marchands from Gaillac (South West) to the portfolio!

La Croix des Marchands is a place where soil and vineyards have lived a two thousand years long love history. This place was a crossroad for potters of the Gallo-Roman era. The name La Croix des Marchands has crossed many centuries, which proves that the place has always been appropriated for the vine culture. La Croix des Marchands is located in the vicinity of Montans. The vineyards recovers 25 hectares of vine, 14 hectares are situated directly around the cellar. The development of new techniques of vinification induced a new approach guided by the « optimal quality » for production and vinification.

France Wine offers both trendy & traditional wines from several regions of France: especially Bordeaux, Burgundy, Languedoc-Roussillon, South West (Gaillac) and the Rhône Valley. Acting as the export manager for our members we give them a chance to focus on the art of wine making.

We facilitate the sourcing of French wines for importers worldwide.

FRANCE WINE - YOUR EASY ACCESS TO THE WINES OF FRANCE

www.francewinexport.com

Contact us